

At the Cafe

Sentence Builder Pack

A different kind of beginner ESL pack: use visual cafe vocabulary to build polite sentences, read short dialogue lines and play in pairs.

pizza

bread

chicken

rice

Inside: sentence building, reading, questions, writing and a Classendo Battleship game

Welcome to your At the Cafe pack

A language-first printable lesson

What makes this pack different

1 Visual language bank

Eight café items appear as picture cues, not a full flashcard deck.

2 Sentence building

Learners rebuild and say: "I would like ____, please."

3 Guided reading

Short order lines turn the same vocabulary into meaningful reading.

4 Question practice

Pairs ask and answer simple café questions using Classendo prompts.

5 Writing and game play

Learners write an order, then use Battleship for a final speaking task.

Teacher lesson plan

35-45 minutes | A0-A1 beginner

TARGET LANGUAGE

Can I have ____, please? / I would like ____, please.

LANGUAGE GOAL

Build a polite order from a vocabulary cue.

MATERIALS

This pack, pencils, tokens and one Battleship page per pair.

1. NOTICE

Use the visual language bank. Model the phrase with two items.

2. BUILD

Complete Sentence Scramble. Check orally before writing.

3. READ

Read the café order lines together, then in pairs.

4. ASK

Use Question Builder for waiter/customer role-play.

5. WRITE + PLAY

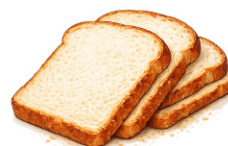

Write an order, then finish with Classendo Battleship.

Cafe language bank

Use the images to support every later page

pizza

bread

rice

water

juice

tea

coffee

Teacher model: Can I have pizza, please? / I would like juice, please.

How to use the Classendo practice pages

A different practice mode on each page

Sentence Scramble

Rebuild the order sentence, then read it aloud.

Read and Respond

Read the line, point to the matching café item and respond.

Question Builder

Use the prompts as waiter/customer speaking cards.

Write an Order

Write a new polite order beside each image.

Battleship

Call a coordinate, name the item and make a polite order.

Teacher notes and answers

Keep the target language consistent

Model answers

Sentence Scramble / Reading / Writing:

"I would like pizza, please." Substitute any pictured café item.

Question Builder:

"Would you like juice?" - "Yes, please. I would like juice."

Battleship:

Before marking a square, the learner says a complete polite order.
